200 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Salem, Fauquier county, Virginia, on the 16th inst. EPHRAIM and POLLY, who I am satisfied are endeavoring to escape to Pennsylvania. Ephraim is a stout likely fellow, 26 years of age, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, dark complexion but not black, long face, high nose, prominent under lip & has one or two scars on his right leg, cut with a scythe in cradling—He is a good wagoner, ploughman and coarse shoemaker, chews tobacco and is very fond of spirits—his clothes are not recollected, except a striped country cloth coat and a new great coat of dark drab country cloth not lined, with a large cape and the collar lined with blue rabbit's fur.
Polly is a very handsome bright mulatto, about 18 years old, a full oval face and a blue set of teeth. She is very fond of dress and keeps her hair always neatly combed—Polly is an excellent weaver, spinner and washer. She took with her a striped country cloth coat and jacket, a white cambric dress and a yellow striped and flowered calico, with a bonnet of the same. The above reward will be given if taken out of the state and secured so that I get them, or one hundred dollars if taken on this side of the Potomac.

The Life of Patrick Henry.

PROPOSAL
By James Webster, of Philadelphia, for publishing by Subscription,
THE LIFE OF
The late Patrick Henry,

Containing many of his Speeches, &c.
Embellished with a Likeness: By Wm.
Wirt, Esq. of Richmond, (Va.)
Extract from the Port Folio for August, 1815.

"It is not without a sentiment of sincere gratification that we witness, in the following proposal, arrangements making by a competent hand, to do justice to the character of one of the most worthy and distinguished of our countrymen. As a statesman, a civilian, an orator and a patriot, Patrick Henry was entitled to stand in the foremost rank: Nor do his merits claim an inferior station as a firm, an honest, and an honorable man. He was one of those worthies on whose purity suspicion could never fix a stain.

"If nature did much for Mr. Henry's character while living, accident has not been wanting in its favors to his posthu-mous fame: for to have found such a biographer as Mr. Wirt, so competent as a writer, and so peculiarly well qualified in every moral relation, is not the least fortunate incident in his history.

"In Mr. Wirt's Life of Patrick Henry we are irresistibly impelled to expect much: the materials being excellent, and in great abundance, and the writer able and devoted to his subject. Nor do we think that the public will run any risk of being disappointed by bearing us company in our high expectations. We hope, and, indeed, have no doubt, that the work will receive a liberal patronage."

Late from Europe.

By the brig Hesper, Stevens, arrived this morning from Glasgow, we have received files of Glasgow and London papers; the former to the 30th of October, the latter to the 23th. The Glasgow paper contains London dates to the 26th.

By this arrival we have received the London Price Current of Oct. 22d and 23th. The late hour at which the papers were received prevents us from giving the Price Current entire until to-morrow.
We have made the following extracts.

London, Oct. 22.

Corn. The weather since our last has been dry and cold. The market yesterday was well supplied with new wheat; the sales were very brisk at a farther improvement of 5s. Many of the samples were so dry as to grind without any mixture of old wheat. Flour advanced 5s per sack.

The statement whether foreign grain can be admitted will be published immediately after the 15th prox and the probable result may be stated much sooner. The letters yesterday from the Baltic, state that wheat had risen nearly 50 per cent in consequence of the high price in England.

Oct. 26.

Average prices of British corn per quarter, for England and Wales, Oct.
19th—Wheat, 93s. 9d.; barley 44s.
9d.

Haddington Corn Market, Oct. 25.

There was a good supply of old and new wheat in this day's market; of 328 9s. 9d. sold from 55s. to 62s. 6d.; 63s. the average price of which is 56s.
10d. 1-12th. There was also a considerable quantity of new wheat in market, a great part of which was wet, and the very best samples were greatly inferior to the crop of last year. The average of new wheat is 3ds and 10d. Highest old barley, 40s, current prices from 36s to 39s. New ditto 34s, current prices from 28s to 35s.

Old wheat, first, 63s; second, 57s; third, 56s. Old barley, first, 40s; third, 35s 6d.
New wheat, first, 48s; second, 42s; third, 36s. New barley, first, 34s, second 32s; third, 30s.
General average—12 6s 2d, 11-12th per boll.

Private Correspondence.

London, Oct. 26.

Saturday Ev. half past seven.

By accounts received to day from Holland, it appears that there had been considerable squabbling between some American owners and the Dutch Government, and the former charge the latter with a breach of faith. Several American ships arrived in this country with cargoes of tea, and as none had been recently received in Holland by the Dutch East India Company, they were anxious to take the American cargoes to dispose of at the autumn sales, in order to afford a supply for the country until their own teas had been got home. In the interim some Dutch tea ships arrive, and on this account the Dutch Government will only permit a half of the American teas to be sold, consisting of 21,000 quarter chests.

The Dutch sales are fixed for the 12th of next month, when the above chests are expected to be sold; but the residue of the American cargoes (says the Dutch government) must be put off till the spring. Meanwhile, the Americans, feeling that they have been already both deceived and disappointed, suspect that in the interval should any further arrivals take place on Dutch account, and which is more than probable there may, the remains of the American cargoes will have to remain over for an uncertain period. These proceedings are sorely felt by the Americans; but, on the other hand it is stated by the Dutch that some of the American cargoes were landed without any previous permission being given, of any promise being made them with regard to their sales—and such cargoes, it is maintained, ought to have no preference, even Dutch cargoes.

Exchanges came lower from all parts of the Continent to day. At Paris, on Wednesday last, exchange on London was 25. 30.
We have advices from Naples to the 7th instant. Our correspondent takes no farther notice of the American squadron.
We consider, that, according to the former accounts, it will winter in Sicily. It is to be deplored that the harvest has been extremely deficient in Italy, inasmuch that the government had come to the resolution of allowing the importation of wheat, rice, flour, oats, and barley of all kinds, free of duty. This regulation which has been ordered was to continue in force until the 31st of Aug. 1817.

Letters from Hamburg of the 19th, inform us that all descriptions of grain were in brisk demand, & that the orders for wheat, from England, could not be executed, as the stock on hand was very small and the good kinds were even much wanted. The following are the prices reduced into sterling at the exchange of 37s. free on board.

Wheat, Martheh, 240 250m—equal to 76s. 4d.—78s.
Do. Danzick, 250 260 m—equal to 76s 10d—82s 9d.
Rye (Dried Riga) 145 m—equal to 46s.

Oats 60 70 m—equal to 19s 6d—20s 3d.

A horrible attempt (says a Paris private letter) was made, some nights back, to blow up the Barracks, near the barrier leading to St. Germain, on the south side of the river. At one o'clock in the morning, a man was discovered with a match in his hand; he was shot by two sentinels at the same moment, and at the place where he was shot, it was discovered that there was a communication with the vaults, in which several barrels of gunpowder had been placed for the horrible purpose of destroying 5000 men in an instant.

We are inclined to think that the present distresses of the country are in some measure owing to the restrictive system of our own commercial laws. It would seem that our country, which excels in manufactures, readily shuts the door against purchasers—(it is only by taking the comparatively few articles in which other nations deal, that they in return can be able to take off our stores. The effect produced by Lord Auckland's commercial treaty with Fra ce, after the peace of 1783, was certainly wonderful.
We agreed to take French toys, millinery &c, and we poured into that country all the staple manufactures of Britain, to an extent unexampled in our history. If we were now to admit these articles and their wines, also, at the duties of Portugal wine, we are inclined to think it would prove much better policy than the restrictive system now pursued.

Within these two or three days several vessels have been chartered for Charleston from the port of London, no doubt for the rice and flour. At the last quotations from Charleston flour was 93 dollars per barrel, rice 5 1/4; the former will be worth here to 62 to 65s, which will leave a handsome profit to the importer. They have a plenty of flour in America to spare, and should the policy be opened, it will be a most favorable circumstance for the Americans, which have so long laid idle in consequence of the high prices which tobacco and cotton have been at in the southern states, and which had prevented the monied men of the northern states from shipping to Europe on their own account.

Awful but authentic Occurrence.—In the course of last week a farmer near Godstone, in the county of Surrey, while walking over a field with some other farmers, or farm laborers, picked up a blighted ear of corn. With his eyes directed towards Heaven, he exclaimed, in a tone impossibly ironical—Art thou not ashamed, GOD ALMIGHTY, thus to blast the fruits of the earth? He had scarcely uttered the words, when he fell down a corpse! We will not venture to pronounce him the object of Divine vengeance, but the coincidence is truly awful.

A letter from Ghent says, that while 1500 British Cavalry were passing Arras, the gates were shut, the guards doubled, and the gunners placed on the ramparts with lighted matches.

This morning arrived a mail from Hamburg and the following are the most important articles in the papers

St. Petersburg, Sept. 28.

His Imperial Majesty has issued from the quarters of the regiment of Heliki an ordinance dated 16th September, which says, that on account of the general peace now prevailing in Europe the annual recruiting in the whole empire shall cease, and the sixth corps of the army, which is to be wholly broken up, employed for completing the army and the fleet.

Hamburg, Oct. 18.

The third confidential meeting of the Ministers to the Diet was to take place on the 15th of this month.
Accounts from St. Petersburg say, that the Emperor is expected back in that city on the 26th October.

Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres on the north side of Octagon, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Octagon mills. It is well watered with ever failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur trees on it renders it the more valuable to person in the coopering line. The soil is of the middle soil, and produces wheat or any other grain tolerably well. There is about 100 acres cleared and in good fence. The improvement is a log dwelling house & other outbuildings and a good apple orchard of about 100 trees.

One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occuguan, known as Sandy Run, containing 47 acres, more half in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old frame house, lumber house and out houses and an orchard of eighty bearing trees.
Any person inclining to purchase, may view the premises and know the value by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.

Public Sale.

WILL be sold, at public auction, on Tuesday the 7th day of January next, being the second day of Prince William Court; at the late residence of Alexander Henderson, of Dumfries; all the personal property at the mansion house. It is useless to enumerate it particularly, but amongst many other articles are such as follow:

A large quantity of bedding of superior quality: a piano: an elegant violin: a new fashionable carriage with plated harness and a pair of horses: 3 milch cows: 40 or 50 hams of prime old bacon valuable carpeting: tea ware and glass ware, &c. &c.

On this property a credit of 9 months will be given, the purchaser giving bond and security, bearing interest from the date if not paid punctually.

Five slaves are for sale, viz. a first rate female cook, a likely well tutored girl of 14, a young man of good character a rough blacksmith, and two valuable farming negro men, one about 25, the other about 35 years old. The one about 25, to be sold as near Fauquier courthouse as may be, to be near his wife, and the other for a like reason near Leesburg. Human Horner, Esq. will sell the youngest. These people may be seen at Dumfries till the day of sale, and on that day, but will not be publicly exposed—the executor does not deal with foreign purchasers or their agents—they need not call, and are asked not to do so.

Cash will be asked for the servants.

The dwelling house itself with its appurtenances will be sold on very moderate and accommodating terms. The house is spacious and convenient; the out houses are good, and the garden prepared with great labor and taste, so as to be at once remarkably productive and handsome. The society of the village is very agreeable and a bargain may be had in this property.

R. H. HENDERSON,

acting executor of Alex. Henderson deceased.
